

Relative error per coefficient ($|\beta| \geq 0.1$ only), $R^2 = 0.5$

Median over 200 runs. Identical on the raw and standardized scales (the rescaling cancels), so it is unit-free; unstable for coefficients near zero

